

Medicaid and DC Healthy Families Know Your Rights!

What is Medicaid/DC Healthy Families?

Medicaid and DC Healthy Families provide health insurance to people who live in D.C. and have low income. The programs pay for doctor and hospital visits, dental and eye care, home health care, prescription drugs, and other services.

This flyer only talks about Medicaid, not Medicare. Medicare is for people who are 65 or older, have disabilities, or have End Stage Renal Disease or ALS.

Can I get Medicaid/DC Healthy Families?

- If you get SSI, you get Medicaid.
- Without SSI, you must have low income and few assets (things you own). See below.

Does everyone in my household get Medicaid when I apply?

You can apply for yourself or others. Some people in your family might be able to get Medicaid, even if you can't get it for everyone. See the charts below:

Household Size (includes adults and children)	Adults can get Medicaid if your total household income is less than:
1	$2,146/month
2	$2,903
3	$3,660
4	$4,417
5	$5,173
6	$5,930

Household Size (includes adults and children)	Children and pregnant women can get Medicaid if your total household income is less than:
1	$3,477/month
2	$4,703
3	$5,929
4	$7,155
5	$8,380
6	$9,606

Can I apply if I don't speak English well?

Yes. The law says the government has to help you in your language. Tell the agency you want help in your language.

I'm Not a Citizen. Can I get Medicaid/DC Healthy Families?

Maybe. Some people who aren't U.S. Citizens can get Medicaid. Go to Legal Aid's flyer, "Getting Public Benefits if You're Not a U.S. Citizen."

Even if you can't get Medicaid, you can still apply for your children or other household members.

You only have to write the immigration status of the people you're applying for. The government can't ask for more information

If you can't get Medicaid because of your immigration status: apply for the DC Healthcare Alliance or for a private plan through D.C. Health Link (dchealthlink.com) (depending on your immigration status).

Can I apply if I don't speak English well?

Yes. The law says the government has to help you in your language. Tell the agency you want help in your language.

What if I also get Medicare?

You might be able to get Medicaid too. See below.

Household Size	Your household monthly income needs to be less than this amount to get . . .
	Medicaid *	QMB
1	$1,073/month	$3,219/month

What happens after I apply for Medicaid/DC Healthy Families?

If you're approved, you'll get a notice in the mail or through the app. You'll get enrolled in managed care plan with a Managed Care Organization (MCO). The three MCO plans are AmeriHealth Caritas, CareFirst Community Health Plan, and MedStar Family Choice. To learn more about the plans, go to dchealthyfamilies.com or call DC Families Customer Service at (800) 620-7802.

I didn't get Medicaid or my services got cut off. What can I do?

You have the right to appeal. You need to appeal within 90 days of the notice that your Medicaid was denied, cut off, or reduced. There are three steps to appeal.

Step 1: Get the appeal form online at <https://oah.dc.gov/node/154252>.

Step 2: Fill out the appeal form.

Step 3: File the form in one of these ways:

Email it to oah.filing@dc.gov.

Bring it in person to the Office of Administrative Hearings, 441 Fourth Street NW, Suite 450N, Washington, DC 20001. Keep a copy of the form.

Mail it the address on the left. *Keep a copy of the form. Write down the date you sent it. This option isn't recommended.

What if my plan won't cover a service I need or a doctor I have to see?

Once you get Medicaid, you have rights. If you can't get a service or see a doctor, file a "grievance" with your MCO. A grievance is a formal way to complain about an issue with your MCO. If the grievance is denied, you can appeal the denial through a "fair hearing" at OAH (see the information above).
